The JCPenney Skirt

We're confident you'll find this new edition of the JCPenney Skirt just as pleasing as you did the first, because it has all the same fine features that made our first-edition skirt so popular.

BEAUTIFUL FABRIC: It's fashioned in wrinkle-free Suraline® by Klopman®—a woven, texturized twill-weave Dacron® polyester. It has body, a nice hand, and just the right amount of stretch to keep its crisp, fresh look even after hours of sitting. It's an excellent year 'round fabric that's washable—with pleats that stay in and never need ironing!

GREAT FIT: It has an elasticized waistband to give comfortable stretch to the waist and enough "breathing" room (approx. 2 inches) to fit "in-between" sizes. There's a Ban-Rol® interlining in the waistband that prevents roll-over. The waistband hugs the body snugly, yet comfortably.

SUPERB STYLING: It has classic, all-around stitched-down pleating (the solid colors feature double rows of top-stitching) that falls smoothly over the hips and then gently flares out for today's contemporary young look.

FINE WORKMANSHIP: It has many fine-quality details—non-slip placketed Talon® Zephyr® nylon side zipper that prevents snagging, folded-over french-style waistband, and binding on the hem for the dressmaker's finishing touches.

And The JCPenney Skirt comes in Jr./Misses Sizes in a wide choice of colors and lengths . . .
